

Sandra Kuck

Admirers of Sandra Kuck know that this talented artist puts a little of herself into every painting. Her strong sense of family and appreciation for beauty are echoed in all of her works. Her nostalgic settings and angelic children evoke memories and emotions of childhood. Sandra finds her inspiration from many different sources, including the special relationship between mother and child, the beauty of a country garden, or the Victorian era. Since 1983, she has been recognized several times with honors from the National Association of Limited Edition Dealers' (NALED), including an unprecedented eight-time Artist of the Year.
